

As the boys got ready for bed, they felt comforted knowing that God's angels were watching over them.

“It’s nice to know we’re never alone,” said Beriah with a smile.