

Instead of rushing, the boys stopped.
They closed their eyes and prayed.

“God,” Malakai whispered, “we don’t know which way to go.”

“Please help us trust You,” Beriah added.