

So, Malakai and Beriah chose the narrow, winding, and shadowy path. They didn't have all the answers, but they had each other and trusted God to guide them through the uncertainty.