

PARENT DEVOTIONAL

Guarded by God

"For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways."

Psalm 91:11 (NIV)

Reflection for Parents

This month's story gently reminds us of a truth we all need—both as children and adults: God is deeply involved in our daily lives.

Malakai and Beriah's journey shows the wonder of God's protection. The boys weren't alone in the forest, and neither are we in our own lives. When you feel stretched thin, overwhelmed, or uncertain, remember—God has already gone ahead of you. His angels are not far-off concepts; they are a picture of His nearness, His care, and His promise to walk with you in every season.

As you guide your child, God is guiding you.

Reflection Questions

1. Where have you seen God's protection in your life lately?
2. What areas of your heart need renewed peace or reassurance?
3. How can you gently teach your child to notice God's presence in their own day.

Prayer Over Your Child

Heavenly Father, thank You for watching over my child. Thank You for Your angels who guard them and guide them.

Fill their heart with peace and courage, and help them always know that they are surrounded by Your love. Lead our family step by step, and let Your presence be our comfort.
